Ramsey Alludes to Honorable Agreement - Option Probably Extended, With Understanding Bases on Wabash Election.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Sept. 13.—Mr. Ramsey, asked as to the effect the reported sale of the Little Kanawha would have on Wabash development, or if he was holding up the transfer of this road as an inducement to stockholders to re-elect him to the presidency, sald:

"I will not say whether the male has been made or not. There has been no transfer, however, as yet; but if it's sold, it's sold, and if it's not sold, it's not sold. I mean made or not. There has been no transfer, however, as yet; but if it's sold, it's sold, and if it's not sold, it's not sold. I mean may honorable agreement that has been made. No, the transfer is not being held up until after the election. That would be dishonorable.

The country is big, and if we find ourselves shut out from one route, why, we can take another. It may not be quite so destrable, but there is lots of room for railroads. They said the Wahash would not get into Pittsburg, you know, but we get in and will find a way out."

In railway circles, where President Ramsey is well known, confidence was expressed to-day in his ability to have correctly juriged the situation before asking for proxies. One official, with unusual sources of information, ventured the opinion that the controversy would end in a reconciliation between President Ramsey and Mr. Gould.

Great significance is attached to the utterances of Mr. Ramsey regarding an honorable agreement.

It is inferred that the Little Kanawha is, by an honorable understanding, to be sold to the Vanderbilts in the event that Mr. Ramsey should not be re-elected to the Wabash facilized. but that he reserves the right to offer it to the Wabash in the event of his re-election.

The Kanawha properties are, apparently, being used to induce Mr. Gould to deto the Wabash in the event of his re-crection.

The Kanawha properties are, apparently, being used to induce Mr. Gould to defer to Mr. Ramsey. Consequently, there is charce of a reconciliation between the two officials. Mr. Ramsey's remarks to the effect that the Wabash, having got into Pittsburg, can get out of it, are looked upon as being conciliatory. The Kanawha intimations point to an exten-Kanawha intimations point to an exten-sion of the Vanderbilts' option.

PITTSBURG QUESTIONS ANNOUNCEMENT OF SALE.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 18.—That the Little Kanawha Syn-ifcate has not been sold to the Vamilerbilt people, as reported here by the Ramsey side of the case on last Saturday, is believed now. Since Saturday matters have come to light here tending to give weight to the statement of Atterney A. M. Neeter of the Gould interests, who, when told hast Saturday that the Little Kanawha Syndicate had been reported as sold by Mr. Ramsey, replied:
"It is not so. The matter is the same as two months ago."

The is not set. The matter is the two months ago.

Diligent search to-day brought out the opinion that the Vanderbilt people have received an extension of their option on the Little Kanawha. This option will carry over to the meeting of the Walash to be held in Tolede on October 10, and it is admitted by fractis of President Ramsey here that if he is not given the presidency again by the Walash directors to be will seil out the road the Wabash director, he will sell out the road e ejected then, he will sell out the road of the Vanderbilts, why the runsumement of the practical losing of the sale should have been made set Saturday is not yet figured out. An ray of facts shows pretty conclusively fat the deal could not have been closed in Saturday, as Colonel Schoonmaker of he Phitsburg and Lake Eris road, who has dealing for the Vanderbilts, was in this bore as Saturday. He left for Spring nus dealing for the Vanuerbits, was in Fittsburg on Saturday. He left for Spring Lake, N. J., on Friday evening, after con-suling with Romsey, and, before going, announced that there would be no other conference in the matter for at least a week, possibly not for two weeks.

LOCAL INSTITUTION NOT APPRISED OF DEAL

The St. Louis financial institution which confected the underwriting of the Little Kanawha syndicate for Mr. Ramsey has not received any notice as yet regarding a sale, an agreement or an extension of the But members of the syndicate believe that the deal is, in some seem to believe that the deal is, in some manner, virtually closed.
Information from a trustworthy source is to the effect that whatever agreement may have been made, the purchaser of the Little Kanawha properties is to pay a premium of about 12 per cent on the determined value of the property and interpretations are of a new cent from the date. from the date when the money was invested.

It startled the local railroad men who heard it, and there was some inclination to coff at it as a wild story. STATE RATE REGULATION CONSIDERED IN REPORT.

Official of Missouri, Kansas and Te as Refers to Matters in Southwest.

New York, Sept. 18 -- An increase of New York, Sept. 18.—An increase of $2.274,500 in its gross earnings for the year ending June 29 is shown by the annual report of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad Company, made public to-day. The earnings for the year were $2.001,600 and expenses $14,508,435, an increase of $1,508,936. The surplus for the year, after payment of interest on bonds, rentals and taxes, and $1,228,142 for new equipment, was 29,649, an increase of $16,624 over 1904, in which year there was a deficit of $257,575.

Chairman Rouse of the Board of Direct Chairman Rouse of the Board of Direc-tors, in his report, calls attention to "some-very drastic legislation" in Kansas and Missouri, practically placing in the hands of the railroad commissions of those States the rate-making power within their States the rate-making power within their limits. Similar agitation is spreading to Oklahoma Territory, and should a result in rate legislation, Mr. Reuse says, practically the whole of the territory covered by the Missouri, Kansas and Taxas will be subject to restrictive control by the political bodies.

Mr. Rouse says: "Just what the effect of such a situation will be cannot now be clearly foreseen, but if can hardly fall to prove detrimental to the property, as it is practically surrendering to the patterns of the railroad the power to fix the compensation for services rendered.

"With the business activity which prevails throughout the region, the injurious results, which are depreciated, are probably not imminent, but the menace of the situation cannot be lost signit of, and especially in view of any discussion of distribution of the modest surplus which your company now enters." of the modest surplus which your com-

General Blees seems to have spared no expense in making the establishment complete, if not elaborate, in every way. The institution has a capacity of 110 students, and the appointments are not excelled anywhere in this country by an institution of like character. The location has healthful surroundings. The Academy received last year the highest indorsement of the Assistant Inspector General of the United States Army. Only select boys, of unquestionably good character, are admitted.
